It seems there are still problems on the download pop-up...

#3 - 05/04/2023 21:08 - Philippe May

Strange. Maybe refresh your browser cache?

#4 - 05/04/2023 21:15 - Giulio Di Anastasio

Tried that, it did not help... when I click on the icon, the browser freezes on the page, and does not respond on the page (but it does respond on other pages)...

Strange, i tried firefox, chrome and another browser. Are you sure you did "Shift-refresh" to force the new version in?

#6 - 06/04/2023 11:09 - Giulio Di Anastasio

You are right, it works for Chrome and other browsers, but it does not with Brave (which is the one I am using...) No worry, I will use Chrome.

Thanks a lot

Giulio

Hi Philippe,

The Download Pop-up window is not working in our chrome (Selvarani, Ram, Raj and Bala).

#8 - 06/04/2023 11:25 - Giulio Di Anastasio

Yes, I need to rectify my earlier statement: on my system (using Chrome) it behaves very erratically, some times it works, some times it freezes, some times it downloads a file which could be a dxf or a gpkg, without possibility of control...

are we all getting crazy???

#9 - 06/04/2023 17:12 - Philippe May

"Going crazy": yes, but that's another story

More seriously, the inconsistent behaviour is a clue where to search.

I misunderstood where the problem is.
